LOCAL NOTICES.

You pay for what you get when you order Sealship oysters—solid meats, no water, no preservatives. Spaulding's Market.

Use American Little Liver Tablets. They taste like "the real thing"—Sealship oysters—because they are fresh, clean, and free from "dope." Spaulding's Market has fresh Sealship oysters every morning.

Stomach-dosing cannot reach catarrh germs in the nose. Breathe Hyomei and you hit the right spot. Complete outfit $1.00; money back if not satisfactory. W. B. Eastman.

Try the American Throat Tablets. It isn't half as hard for most people to find a good dinner as to digest one. Use Mi-o-na stomach tablets and never fear indigestion. 50c; guaranteed by W. B. Eastman.

LOCAL GATHERINGS.

—The February meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held with Mrs. S. D. Atwood next Wednesday afternoon, when the general topic will be "Our Translated Leader." The meeting will be in charge of Mrs. Frelove E. Spaulding. The meeting will be held on Wednesday instead of Tuesday owing to the County Sunday School convention.

—The Vermont Schoolmasters club will hold its spring meeting at Burlington, March 6.

—The St. Johnsbury banks will observe Washington's Birthday by closing all day Saturday but will be open, as usual, on Saturday evenings, from 7 to 8 o'clock.

—Young's orchestra is very busy filling engagements nearly every night in the week. They played last week for the opera "Pinafore" and an Odd Fellows ball at Woodsville. This week they play for a lecture course concert at Walden, the Bankers' annual banquet at Wells River, and a Washington ball at Glover. This orchestra has been engaged for the New Music Hall for the balance of this season and next, and patrons of the new hall are promised good music at all productions.

—New patients at the Brightlook hospital are Harold Bean and Miss Clara Birch, both of whom were operated upon for appendicitis, and Miss Elmira Perriard of St. Johnsbury. Mrs. L. H. Pond, Mrs. Florence A. Camp and Mrs. L. J. Cramer have been discharged.

—At St. Johnsbury hospital the new patients are Michael Corr of St. Sylvestre, P. Q., James Hubbard of Lyndon, Dean Hale and Arthur Prevost of St. Johnsbury. John Landry, who was operated on last week for appendicitis, has gone home. Mrs. Annie Howard has been discharged.

—W. V. Orcutt has filed a petition in bankruptcy, with liabilities of $2473.36 and assets of $665, of which $500 is claimed exempt.

—The annual meeting of The West End Magazine Club was held at the home of W. H. Sargent Monday evening. The magazines were sold at auction and J. M. Perham was elected secretary.

—St. Margaret's Guild will have a social at D. D. Patterson's on Wednesday evening to which the parish and their friends are invited. Games, music and an old fashioned spelling match will furnish entertainment and refreshments will be served.

—The ice went out of the river early Sunday morning taking the little house on the skating rink with it. Our Center correspondent speaks of the ice on the highway there and Bay street and St. Mary's street were also blocked by the jam.

—A new mail box has been installed at the depot for the north and south mail. The box has a lock on one side for the railway mail agent and on the other for the St. Johnsbury letter carriers. The latter visit this box on all their collections and thus relieve the railway mail clerk of much of the mail matter.

—O. H. Henderson has fixed upon March 26 as the date of his Washington excursion and has already received a number of applicants for the trip.

—A meeting of the fourth class postmasters is called here for next Tuesday. The call says the meeting is in the interests of good service and better pay for the officials.

—Madame Brock's Orchestra play at Lancaster at their annual Easter ball and at Whitefield the following night.

—Arthur M. Vaughn of Randolph, chairman of the state forestry commission, will speak on forestry at Athenaeum Hall on Thursday evening, March 5. The address is given under the auspices of the forestry committee of the Woman's Club and will be well worth hearing.

—Madame Brock's Orchestra will play at the ball at the Pennigewasset House in Plymouth on the evening of March 5. There will be eight men in the orchestra on this occasion.

—On Saturday evening, March 7, the famous Canadian Jubilee singers with Imperial orchestra will give a grand concert at Grace Methodist church.

—Forty of the leading business men of Lynn, Mass., 15 in Boston, and one in California have recently joined the St. Johnsbury Merchants' association.

—Bradstreet's Vermont weekly trade report says that retail merchants at St. Johnsbury report general trade quiet, although the outlook for spring business is encouraging.

—Many people here who are interested in the Hume Carriage Co., of Amesbury, Mass., through Charles F. Robinson, who has been connected with this firm for 18 years and a member of the firm for 11 years, will be interested to know that they have moved their plant to 66 Stanhope Street, Boston. There they will build automobile bodies, tops, also paint and trim both automobiles and carriages.

State Convention at Burlington.

The republican state committee met at the Van Ness house at Burlington last Wednesday and decided that the state convention should be held in Burlington April 29, at 1.30 p. m., in the armory of Company M., to elect delegates to the national convention at Chicago. It is expected that a speaker of national reputation will be present.

Harry Blodgett represented this county at the meeting. It is expected that the district conventions will be held either the day before or the day following the state convention.

Vermont is entitled to four delegates at large and two from each Congressional district, making eight in all.
